PAYMENT STATUS AND TICKETS

Users (upon signing in) can check the status of their orders and print tickets (print@home) or vouchers for the collection of tickets in My Orders tab. The tab includes all successfully made transactions, and lists the titles of events, dates and other data about orders.

If having several usernames (under different e-mail addresses), make sure to check under which username and to which web shop you have signed in as the transactions are tied to the username.

ADMISSION TO AUDITORIUM (WITH TICKETS PURCHASED ONLINE)

Admission to auditoriums is possible by presenting the print@home or e-ticket, saved on your mobile phone or other mobile device (passbook, wallet...).

For some events, you will receive a voucher which must be exchanged for tickets. You can print the voucher, save it on your mobile phone or copy out the multi-digit number. The voucher can be exchanged at the CD Box Office during business hours that are posted on CD's webpage or an hour prior to the event at the venue's box office (if the event is not in-house). The location of the box office depends on the venue.

We do not exchange or refund tickets. In exceptional cases tickets can be exchanged at your request no later than a day prior to the event on workdays between 11.00 and 13.00 at the CD Box Office (Maxi underpass). The ticket exchange fee is €2 per ticket.

TICKET SAFEGUARDING

Tickets must not be misused, copied or interfered with. Each ticket is valid for the first entrance into an auditorium, that is, only the first ticket used when entering an auditorium is valid. All subsequent tickets with the same identification are invalid. In using an authorized ticket, the user accepts the event provider's terms and conditions.

PAYMENT ERRORS

If the server sends a notification about payment error or other notable difficulties occur during payment procedure, buyers should first check the status of their orders in My Orders tab before re-starting the procedure. ONLINE TICKET PURCHASE IS FINAL

Before clicking Place Order the buyer is obliged to carefully check all order data (date and payment amount, title of event, number of seats, etc.). Before placing your order, you still have a chance to review and confirm your order or change any of the purchase items in the next step – event, date, hour, row and seat number, number of tickets, etc. After placing an order by clicking the buy button no changes are possible, and the right of withdrawal does not apply.

Pursuant to Item 12 of the fifth paragraph of Article 43.č of the Consumer Protection against Unfair Commercial Practices Act, the consumer shall not have the right to withdraw from the contract in accordance with the first paragraph of this Article in respect of services related to leisure activities if the company undertakes to fulfil its obligation on a specific date or within a specific period unless otherwise agreed by the contracting parties with a contract. In accordance with the abovementioned legal exception all ticket orders are binding, regardless of the manner of placing an order (by phone, e-mail, point of sale or online). We do not accept returns or issue refunds on tickets for events taking place in Slovenia or abroad, bought on CD's website or from CD's authorized points of sale.

In exceptional cases due to force majeure tickets can be exchanged at your request no later than a day prior to the event on workdays between 11.00 and 13.00 at the CD Box Office (Maxi underpass). The ticket exchange fee is €2 per ticket.

In the event of lost or stolen tickets the buyer is not entitled to recovery of costs, exchange of tickets or replacement tickets. The seller must be informed of any loss and theft of tickets or damage to tickets without delay.

EVENT CANCELLATION

In the event of cancellation or new/altered date of event, CD – or event providers in case of a lease event – shall assume responsibility for the altered circumstances and issuing refunds.

In the event of cancellation, tickets can be exchanged for another event or refund claimed from Cankarjev dom's Box Office no later than one month after the scheduled date of the event. No refunds will be issued, or exchanges made, for tickets returned after that date or unused tickets. If the tickets for a new event are higher-/lower-priced than the tickets for the cancelled event, the price differential (balancing payment/refund) shall be settled at Cankarjev dom's Box Office (unless otherwise specified). In the event of phone orders or online orders, the tickets can be posted (including your personal data: name and surname, address, number of your current account to which repayment will be credited), within the time frame specified above, to: Cankarjev dom, Prešernova cesta 10, 1000 Ljubljana, Box Office and Information. Holders of tickets paid via payment service providers that enable refunds processed to their original payment method will receive refunds to their original payment method. When refund has been issued, the tickets shall become invalid regardless of their medium.

In the event of cancellation or new/altered date of event or change of line-up/cast or programme, additional costs that might incur (e.g. travel expenses, accommodation, costs of point of sale, delivery costs) shall not be reimbursed.

Changes are posted on CD's website and announced via mass media and social networks.

REFUNDS DUE TO FORCE MAJEURE (COVID-19 EPIDEMIC)

In accordance with CD's General Terms and Conditions of Ticket Sale and the Consumer Protection Act, holders of tickets for cancelled or postponed events will be issued a refund as follows:

a) Refunds for postponed or cancelled events organised by CD

Cankarjev dom is making every effort to find new dates for the cancelled events. Please check Cankarjev dom's website, social media and newsletter regularly for further updates on rescheduled/postponed or cancelled events. No ticket exchange is necessary for rescheduled events (unless otherwise stated). Ticket holders who find the new date unsuitable are issued a credit note in the amount of the admission price or given a refund. Refund or a credit note will also be issued for cancelled events. The credit or refund requests must be submitted no later than the new date of a postponed event. The credit note is valid until the end of December 2023.

b) CD season subscriptions refunds

CD will make every effort to find alternative dates for the cancelled subscription series events. Subscribers will be duly notified of the new dates and, potentially, alternative artists/shows. The admission fee for a cancelled subscription event for which no alternative date/show is provided throughout the season is kept as a subscriber's prepaid credit until the end of the 2022/23 season. The credit constitutes a proportionate sum of the cancelled concerts/performances of each subscriber. It can be used for any subsequent ticket purchase. If preferring a refund, the proportionate amount is credited to a subscriber's current account at the end of the subscription season.

c) Eventim ticketing network refunds

Holders of tickets bought for events not organised by Cankarjev dom are requested to address their refund requests to the original point of sale (Eventim ticketing network).

The request must include an e-ticket, a photographed or scanned ticket and data required for the deposit into the ticket holder's current account.

III PURCHASE OF GOODS

The purchase of webstore products is only available to natural persons. If wishing to purchase products as a legal entity, please e-mail vstopnice@cd-cc.si or call CD's Box Office during opening hours by dialling (01) 24 17 299. Products are also available for purchase at Cankarjev dom's Gallery, Prešernova 10, Ljubljana. For the purposes of goods delivery (fulfilment of the contractual obligation), the buyer provides the seller with the delivery address, phone number and e-mail.

RANGE OF GOODS ON OFFER

Due to the nature of online selling, the range of products is updated in real-time. The goods on offer are available in small quantities. For larger orders (ten or more items) please contact vstopnice@cd-cc.si. If the goods cannot be shipped, the buyer is informed thereof by e-mail and the price is refunded to the buyer. CD assumes no liability for damages resulting from longer delivery times or non-delivery of goods.

PRICES OF GOODS

All prices include VAT. The selling prices are valid at the time of placing the order and their period of validity is not fixed in advance. Despite making every effort to provide updated and accurate data, the quoted price may be incorrect. In this case, or in case of the price changing during order processing, CD shall grant the customer the right of withdrawal.

ORDERING PROCEDURE

Buyers order items by selecting from the range of goods on offer (www.cd-cc.si). A product is selected by clicking the "Add to Bag" icon. Before placing an order, an order outline is displayed that allows the buyer to review the order: verify the accuracy of data entered or to identify any errors and to correct or modify the data related to the order (quantity and type of products, method and place of delivery and method of payment). By clicking the "Confirm Order" icon, the buyer fully accepts and agrees on the general terms and conditions of sale. When clicking "Confirm Order", the order is entered into the seller's information system. If the order is successfully completed, a confirmation text is shown on the web page. After placing the order, the buyer receives an e-mail conformation of the order. The CD may contact the customer on his telephone number to verify the relevant data or to ensure delivery accuracy.

SHIPPING, DELIVERY TIME AND SHIPPING FEE

Products in stock are shipped within one to three working days from the date of the order. If the products are temporarily out of stock, the seller shall notify the buyer of the expected date of shipping by e-mail or by phone. If the buyer finds the longer delivery time unsuitable, they may notify CD thereof and cancel the order. Delivery is carried out by Pošta Slovenije, usually within one or three business days (unless otherwise notified by Pošta Slovenije). We do not ship goods internationally. When the order has shipped, the buyer receives a notification by e-mail or a text message that the items are on their way. Delivery for purchases over €40 is free, otherwise the cost of shipping and handling is 2.90 € per order.

PURCHASING GOODS AS GIFTS

Goods may be ordered as gifts for a third party. In this case, CD sends the goods to the address of a donee (third party). All purchase procedures are the same as when buying goods for one's private use. The exceptions being that the delivery details entered are those of the donee (name and address) and a message for the gift card that is enclosed to the gift may be provided. However, if the buyer prefers to leave the text box blank, the card reads: "Culture is always a great present. With best wishes from ___ /buyer's name/." The card is free of charge, regular shipping rates apply.

ISSUING INVOICES

After the order has been shipped, CD sends the invoice to the buyer in a PDF-format to their e-mail address. The invoice includes a breakdown of the price and costs related to the order. The buyer is obliged to verify the accuracy of the invoice details and to inform the seller of any errors within eight days of receipt. CD shall not take into consideration any subsequently raised objections against the accuracy of invoices.

RIGHT OF WITHDRAWAL

The consumer has the right to notify CD within 14 days that he is withdrawing from the contract, without having to state the reasons for his decision. The withdrawal period starts the day following the receipt of products. Products must be returned unused, undamaged, in their original packaging and in unchanged quantity. A copy of the invoice and refund details (personal bank account number) must be provided. The return form is available for download HERE. The buyer must notify Cankarjev dom (vstopnice@cd-cc.si) of his intention to return the product. The return of goods to the seller within the withdrawal period shall be deemed as notification of withdrawal. The buyer must return the goods within 14 days after the seller was informed of the buyer's intention to withdraw, to the address: Cankarjev dom, Prešernova 10, 1000 Ljubljana. CD shall refund the price to the customer's personal bank account as soon as possible, no later than 30 days after receiving the return. The return option does not apply to food products whose packaging has been opened or technical goods that have been tampered with (removed safety seal).

DAMAGED SHIPMENTS

If the customer notices that the product or package has been damaged, lacks content or shows signs of opening, he or she must initiate compensation proceedings with Pošta Slovenije. They may do so by taking the package to a post office as soon as possible. The customer shall remind the postal officials of the necessity to fill in the Record of Damaged Shipment, and then sign the document.

MATERIAL DEFECTS

A material defect means a defect in any item, whether tangible or intangible, that substantially prevents the item from operating or functioning as designed or according to its implied or prescribed specifications; if the seller delivers an item that does not match the pattern or model advertised, unless it was displayed only for the sake of illustration. The buyer must inform CD of any material defect, providing a precise description, within the statutory time limit and at their own expense. The customer shall enable the seller to inspect the item. The right to claim material defects is laid down in more detail by the provisions of the Consumer Protection Act.
